

This 11 acre facility features two full-size artificial turf soccer fields and a concession building. The park was opened in 1998 and renamed in 2008 for two individuals who were instrumental in the construction of this complex.